

Mondays at 10AM
November 8-December 13

All Ages

Friluftsliv is the Nordic concept of getting outdoors, translated to 'free air life', and we'll be embracing this concept as part of our outdoor storytime in School House Park this winter!

Weather Permitting: we will cancel storytime if there is rain or snow or if the temperatures drop significantly below freezing.

Our plan:

- 1) Registration is required for each storytime. You can register on our website.
2) We ask that you bring a blanket or a mat to sit on at School House Park and bundle up!
3) Find a socially distanced spot away from other families and groups.

Do you prefer your storytimes to be from the comfort of your own home? Then join us for virtual storytimes on Facebook on Fridays at 10AM from November 12- December 17. Visit our Facebook page

Take and Makes

Pick Up Outside of the Library Entrance

Wednesdays from 10am-12PM and 5PM-7PM

November 10: Scratch Art

Pick up your own scratch art kit as part of this Take and Make. We have a variety of shapes so it will be a surprise. Create your own message or design using the included scratching tool.

November 17: Cork Turkeys

What better way to celebrate the harvest than this adorable cork turkey craft? You'll get your own leaf to decorate as well as everything else you'll need.

December 1: Paper Winter Scenes

Stretch your paper crafting skills by creating this 3D paper winter scene. This is a great craft for older kids. For younger children, it's a great family craft!

December 8: Mosaic Snowflakes

This mosaic snowflake is a great way to practice scissor skills, fine motor skills, and pattern making. Cut up the strips of paper in the kit to make your own squares for the mosaic.

'Abby Beckett comes from a long line of elite Viking warriors known as the Aesir, being trained her whole life to hunt the creatures known as Grendels. The problem is there hasn't been a sighting of a Grendel in centuries and the Viking Council wants to disband the Aesir. But when her father is attacked by one and no one believes her, Abby embarks on a journey to protect her family's name and stop the plot to destroy the Aesir.' From CountyCat
