Autism In Haiku With Kathie Giorgio
Thursday, October 12, 6:30PM
Please register:
https://www.wfblibrary.org/our_events/?eid=1522

Join us for an evening with author Kathie Giorgio. She will be at the library to discuss her book Olivia in Five, Seven, Five: Autism in Haiku. When Olivia was born 21 years ago, Kathie thought it would be an easy journey. After all, she was already the mother of three. She thought she had experienced it all. But she hadn't experienced autism.

Join Kathie for an open discussion about autism, its impact on their relationship,

2-SENTENCE
HORROR
STORY CONTEST.

2-Sentence Horror Story Contest

It was a dark and stormy night when the library decided to host our second annual 2-Sentence Horror Story Contest! What is a 2-Sentence Horror Story? It is just like it sounds, it is a scary story told in only two sentences. Here are some examples:

The grinning face stared at me from the darkness beyond my bedroom window. I live on the 14th floor.

They delivered the mannequins in bubble wrap. From the main room I begin to hear popping.

How to Enter:

To enter the contest, submit your 2-Sentence Horror Story to this form.

Choosing the Winners:
We'll let you decide which are the best horror stories. Check back on this page beginning October 21 to begin voting on your favorites. Prizes will be awarded.
