

Seed Library

Beginning March 1, our seed library is back! We provide the seeds and you do the rest! The seed library can be found right across from the circulation desk.

Seeds are purchased from Burpee.com; all veggies and herbs are organic. Check out some old favorites, along with some new seeds this year.

Masks Strongly Recommended

We strongly recommend that all patrons wear a mask while in the library. As we move from a requirement to a recommendation, free masks are still available at any service desk to continue to help the community stay safe. This is all subject to change based on COVID trends and statistics.
